

The Boxberry School

February 27, 2019

Hi everyone,

Hard to believe the end of February is fast approaching! We are excited to share our Trimester 2 work with you all this Thursday evening. The kids have been focusing on completing their projects (fingers crossed!) and are eager to show what they've created and accomplished. Please remember to let me know what you can bring to the potluck- I've created a google doc that I've shared with you all. Please add to it so we have a sense of what's coming for dinner and then we can all fill in any gaps.

In addition, I wanted to let you know that at 3pm pick-up, kids and parents are welcome to stay at school till 5 if that is easier for you. We only ask that all kids are directly supervised by their parents at all time, so we can prep for the potluck and/or do anything we may need to do to get ready.

Also, this Friday is a half-day, as my email reminded you. Pick up is at noon sharp so that I, Deanna, and Cassandra can get right to work planning for our third (and last!!?) trimester of the year. We appreciate your flexibility- I know

Deanna, Cassandra, & Seal

Storm Days/Folders: 11/16, 11/20, 11/27/18,
1/8/19, 1/9/19, 1/21/19, 2/13/19

Snow Days Used (1 of 4 built into calendar): 12/21/18

Flower Room

Flower Room students have completed their non-fiction books and are currently working on reading different versions of Cinderella during the break between Trimester 2 and Trimester 3. Word work continues as well! They have also finished their 3D house projects and have done some graphing work to accompany those projects as well.

Our K-2ers have compiled their community learnings into one big book to share and they've also been focusing on making the best out of their mistakes for SEL.

Forest Room

Opinion pieces are finished and grammar study and word work continues. Students have been undergoing the DRA s again to Deanna can gauge their literacy improvement. Math assessments have been happening as well.

Forest Room students have also been wrapping up their character journals for LEX and participating in activities focused on cooperation for SEL.
